TERRANCE TURNER,)

v.)) CIVIL ACTION NO. 5:23-cv-58 (MTT) \
DAPEER ROSENBILT LITCAK LLP LAWYERS, et al.,))) Defendants.)))

ORDER

On February 8, 2023, the Court ordered Turner to either pay the $402.00 filing fee or complete a proper Middle District of Georgia non-prisoner application to proceed in forma pauperis. Doc. 3. The Court further cautioned Turner that failure to comply with the Court's order may result in dismissal of his case. Id. Nonetheless, Turner failed to list his monthly expenses in his recast application, choosing instead to state under oath that the "FBI says don't fill this out." Doc. 5 ¶ 8. That statement is patently false. In his affidavit in support of his application, Turner acknowledges that "a false statement may result in a dismissal of [his] claims." Id. at 1. Further, Turner has violated the Court's February 8, 2023 order that directed him to file a proper application to proceed in forma pauperis. Accordingly, Turner is ORDERED to show cause, no later than February 24, 2023, why the Court should not dismiss his case for making a false statement under oath and for failure to comply with the Court's order. Failure to comply with this order will result in dismissal.

SO ORDERED, this 14th day of February, 2023.
